

DEEP STATE

DESTROYER SERIES—VOLUME 37

The ongoing agenda of the DEEP STATE is to replace good with evil in our society.

Staring evil in the face - a closer look at Klaus Schwab and his WEF crime syndicate

Make no mistake, here we are staring evil in the face and nobody in their right mind would let these criminals call the shots, for they are simply and emphatically not working in our best interests but in their own.

They are by their modus operandi and intent, criminal cartels whose best interests evidently embrace reducing the likes of you, me and those we care about to expendable soul-less drones or – in the words of the WEF's leading goal-setter Dr Yuvel Noah Haram – hackable animals, condemned to lifelong servitude to the wealthy elite.

With the dawn of COVID-19 and the World Economic Forum's announcement of the Great Reset, it is vital to examine the other, much darker side of public-private partnerships. Klaus Schwab was taught by Henry Kissinger. Kissinger would of course soon go on to become President Nixon's National Security Advisor as well as a notorious war criminal. Klaus, however later names Kissinger as one of the top three to four figures who had most influenced his thinking throughout his life. In Klaus Schwab's 2018 book, Shaping the Fourth Industrial Revolution, he provides his wish list for a world dominated by such things as AI, quantum computing, and biotech.

Several quotes are demonstrative of a graft agenda in the guise of concern for the well-being of humanity. A lot can be learned if one cares to read between the lines using history and WEF actions as a guide.
